KOLLAM Trump kicks off 2024 prez bid with visits

to key states

WASHINGTON

FORMER US President Donald Trump is set to kick off his 2024 White House bid on Saturday with visits to a pair of early voting states, his first campaign events since launching his bid more than two months ago.

Trump will be the keynote speaker at the New Hampshire GOP's annual meeting before travelling to Columbia, South Carolina, where he is set to unveil his leadership team at the Statehouse. The states hold two of the party's first three nominating contests, giving them enormous power in selecting its nominee.

Trump and his allies hope the events will offer a show of force behind the former president after a sluggish start to his campaign that left many questioning his commitment to running again. In recent weeks, his backers have been reaching out to political operatives and elected officials to secure support for Trump's reelection at a critical juncture when other Republicans are preparing their own expected challenges.

"The gun is fired, and the campaign season has started," said Stephen Stepanek, chair of the New Hampshire Republican Party and the co-chair of Trump's 2016 campaign in ing and pummeling Nichols the state.

While Trump remains the only declared 2024 presidential candidate, a host of potential challengers, including Florida Governor Ron DeSantis, former Vice President Mike Pence and former S Carolina Governor Nikki Haley, who served as Trump's ambassador to the United Nations, are widely expected to launch campaigns in the coming months. In South Carolina, Governor Henry Mc-

Cops struck down Nichols with fists, batons and boots

Video shows officers pummeling & leaving him on footpath propped against squad car

MEMPHIS

AUTHORITIES released video footage on Friday showing Tyre Nichols being beaten by five Memphis police officers who held the Black motorist down and repeatedly struck him with their fists, boots and batons as he screamed for his mother.

The video is filled with violent moments showing the officers, who are also Black, chasand leaving him on the pavement propped against a squad car as they fist-bump and celebrate their actions.

Protesters gathered for mostly peaceful demonstrations in multiple cities, including Memphis, where several demonstrators blocked the Interstate 55 bridge that carries traffic over the Mississippi River toward Arkansas.

In Washington, protestors gathered in Lafayette Park, across the street from the White House and near the Black Lives Matter Plaza. The lengthy video footage from police body cameras shows a group of officers detaining Nichols, attempting to take him down with the use of a Taser, then giving chase as he evades them. After the first officer roughly pulls Nichols out of a car, Nichols can be heard saying, "I didn't do anything," as a group of officers begins to wrestle him to the ground.

Two officers hold Nichols to the ground as he moves about, and then the third appears to kick him in the head. Nichols slumps more fully onto the pavement with all three officers surrounding him. The same officer kicks him again.

The fourth officer then walks over, draws a baton and holds it up at shoulder level as two officers hold Nichols upright, as if he were sitting. The video raised questions about the role and possible culpability of the other officers at the scene, in addition to the five who were charged.

The footage shows a number of other officers standing around after the beating.

Memphis Police Director Cerelyn "CJ" Davis has said other officers are under investigation for their part in the arrest. During the traffic stop, the video shows the officers were "already ramped," she said. The officers were "aggressive, loud, using profane language and probably scared Mr. Nichols from the very beginning."

FOREIGN LOAN INFLOWS OF PAKISTAN SLOW DOWN: REPORT

Pakistan received only $5.6 billion in foreign loans during the first half of current fiscal year, equal to about one-fourth of the annual budget estimate, as per a media report on Saturday

Data compiled by the Ministry of Economic Affairs showed that foreign loan disbursements from July to December 2022 stood at a mere $5.6 billion, the Express Tribune reported

The report added that the disbursements were not enough to finance the maturing foreign debt, making a severe dent in the foreign exchange reserves held by the central bank

WHY THE LOW DISBURSEMENTS?

The key reason for the low disbursements was the government's failure to ensure the timely completion of the ninth review of the IMF programme. As a consequence, the receipt of $5.6 billion was equal to only onefourth of the annual budget estimate of $22.8 billion

INSUFFICIENT LOANS Pakistan received just $532 million in loans in December, which were not sufficient for making major repayments

> In the past seven days, the country paid $828 million to Chinese financial institutions. As a result, the official foreign exchange reserves slipped to $3.1 billion

About 44% of the loans received in December came from the Asian Development Bank (ADB), which gave $231 million. So far, the ADB has remained the largest lender with disbursement of $1.9 billion

Against the annual estimate of $7.5 billion, Pakistan has only received $200 million in foreign commercial loans in the current fiscal year, the report said

The government now expects it will receive $6.3 billion in commercial loans, which appears to be on the higher end

It had also hoped to get loans of $1.6 billion under the most expensive Naya Pakistan Certificates. So far, $190 million, or 11% of the annual estimate, has been received

Must help India find substitutes to Russian

AHEAD of her India visit for 'foreign office consultations' Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs, Victoria Nuland, has told lawmakers that the US needs to help India find alternatives to Russian military equipment and that is part of the "job we have to do."

Nuland is travelling to India as part of a four-nation trip including Nepal, Sri Lanka and Qatar from January 28 to February 3. "I think they (India) find themselves after 60 years of entanglement having to find alternatives, and that's part of the job we have to do, is help them with alternatives," Nuland told members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee during a Congressional hearing on Russia.

She was responding to a question from Senator Jeff Merkley when she told law-

"I'm glad to hear that you're going to India. I would think that after the performance of Russian weapons on the battlefield has been demonstrated, they might be somewhat less interested,"

India has faced flak from US lawmakers, both Republicans and Democrats, for choosing to abstain from a UN vote to rebuke Russia's invasion of Ukraine. US officials have also expressed concern over India's purchase of the S-400 missile systems by Russia.

"On my last trip to India, that was one of the first things we said, look at how these weapons perform on the battle-

Second time in 3 years; UK airline Flybe collapses, all flights cancelled

LONDON

STRUGGLING United Kingdom regional airline Flybe collapsed for the second time in three years on Saturday, putting jobs on the line and leaving passengers stranded.

The airline initially slumped into bankruptcy in March 2020, shedding 2,400 jobs, as coronavirus restrictions decimated the travel industry. However, it relaunched in April last year, flying many of the same routes out of Belfast, Birmingham and London Heathrow.

In a statement, the grounded flyer said it had called in bankruptcy accountants again, and warned passengers not to travel to airports as all flights were now cancelled, including its international routes from Switzerland and the Netherlands.

The UK's Civil Aviation Authority said passengers should "make their own alternative travel arrangements via other airlines, rail or coach operators," leaving customers with lengthy and potentially expensive trips to get home.

CAA consumer director Paul Smith said, "It is always sad to see an airline enter administration and we know that Flybe's decision to stop trading will be distressing for all of its employees and customers.'

The UK government said that its immediate priority would be to support anyone trying to get home and those who have lost their jobs.

"This remains a challenging environment for airlines, both old and new, as they recover from the pandemic, and we understand the impact this will have on Flybe's passengers and staff," it said.

The Civil Aviation Authority is providing advice to passengers to help them make their journeys as smoothly and affordably as possible.

It added that most of Flybe's destinations were within the UK, so alternative means of transport were available.
