Traders in Grand Bazaar have decided to down their shutters on July 31 as a mark of protest against the government's decision to temporarily shift them to AFT Ground to facilitate construction of a new market under Smart City programme on JN Street.

Addressing a press conference along with traders of GB on Friday, AITUC general secretary K. Sethu Selvam said around 1,400 shops were functioning in the market.

Traders in Grand Bazaar are protesting against the government's decision to temporarily shift them to AFT Ground to facilitate construction of a new market. S.S. KUMAR

The owners have decided to close their outlets on Monday to condemn the government decision to shift them out of the place. After closing their outlets, the traders would take out a march in the town on Monday, Mr. Sethu Selvam added.

The traders are opposing the plan to demolish all the existing structures and construct a multi-storey complex. They wanted the government to rebuild only structurally weak portions, he said. Traders functioning in other markets in the town have also expressed solidarity with the shop owners in Grand Bazaar.

Opposition protest

The Opposition parties, comprising the Congress, the DMK, the CPI, the CPI (M) and the VCK have already announced a major agitation on Monday at JN Street on the issue. Meanwhile, former Member of Parliament P. Kannan has come out in support of the demand of the traders in the GB.

In a statement on Friday, he said the government should hold discussion with the shop owners to find an amicable solution. The government should consider the views of traders before taking up modernisation work at the market. The new construction should not affect the livelihood of the traders and workers, he said.

Balavatika classes to begin in KV shift-2 from next year

The Hindu Bureau
PUDUCHERRY

The Kendriya Vidyalaya, Jipmer campus, will start Balavatika (pre-primary classes) in shift-2 also from the next academic year.

Addressing a joint press conference as part of third anniversary of the National Education Policy (NEP 2020), Principal of KV, Jipmer Jose Mathew and Principal of Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya Kannadassan on Friday said the NEP has re-defined grassroot-level education system in the country. The NEP envisages education of the child to begin at the age of 3 years in Balavatika classes.

KV Jipmer was among the 49 schools selected in the country to start Balavatika classes. Around 900 applications were received for admission to Balavatika for shift-1 this year. As many as 120 students were taken in. From the next academic year, shift-2 would be open for Balavatika admission, Mr. Jose said.

When asked about the demand for opening more Kendriya Vidyalayas in the Union Territory, he said the Central government was the deciding authority on opening new KVs.

"The Ministry would be happy to start more Vidyalayas here provided the territorial administration was willing to identify necessary land," he said.

President to visit Auroville for Sri Aurobindo's birth anniversary

The Hindu Bureau
PUDUCHERRY

President Droupadi Murmu is scheduled to visit Auroville on August 8 to participate in the month-long birth anniversary celebrations of Sri Aurobindo. Ms. Murmu is expected to visit the Matrimandir, address the plenary of a day-long conference on 'Aspiring for the Supermind at the City of Consciousness', and attend a concert by Carnatic vocalist Aruna Sairam.

Tamil Nadu Governor and Auroville Foundation chairman R.N. Ravi, Puducherry

Lieutenant Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan, member of Auroville governing board, are expected to address the gathering.

Briefing reporters, Jayanti Ravi, Secretary, Auroville Foundation, said the conference would be spread over three sessions that would focus on various dimensions of Sri Aurobindo's teachings and writings. The conference would feature scholars who would share their experience and understanding of the concept of the supermind.

One of the sessions is devoted to understanding the essence of the Supermind as expatiated in the teachings/writings of Sri Aurobindo and his spiritual collaborator The Mother, who founded the universal township 55 years ago.

Another session, "Attaining the Supermind" will explore the continuum of efforts in the city of Auroville to manifest these higher concepts across all aspects of living.

"Aspiring for Human Unity" will be the theme of the third session that would delve into the ethos and nuances of such an aspiration and the process of enlivening it into the day-to-day routine.

The month-long events mark an extension of the year-long sesqui centennial birth anniversary of Sri Aurobindo with a host of events connecting people across the country with the quintessence of his expositions as nationalist, philosopher and yogi. The dawnfire celebration around the Matrimandir will take place on August 15, that conjoins celebration of Independence Day and Sri Aurobindo's birth anniversary.

According to Ms. Jayanti Ravi, there are also plans to involve school and college students from Puducherry and Tamil Nadu in the celebrations.

The Bharat Nivas, or the India Pavilion in Auroville, would be the hub of exhibitions. About 800 Auroville units would take turns showcasing their products to the public. Yoga sessions are also part of the events, some of which will continue till mid-September.

Capping off the month-long celebrations would be the Auroville Literature Festival from August 25-27 that features top-notch authors from India and abroad attending in person or online.
