Heavy rains lash 14 districts, 7 dead

INTENSE MONSOON rains brought normal life to a standstill in several parts of eastern and central Rejasthan, flooding out roads, rail tracks, low-lying residential areas and hospitals and claiming seven lives since Sunday night. More showers are expected to lash around a dozen districts on Tuesday. A seven-year-old boy was swept away on Monday in the gushing waters of anoverflowing drain in the Murilipura area in Jajpur, where sevenda reas reeled from water fegging.

Three deaths due to drowning were reported from Aignet two from Nagaur and one from Tonk. INTENSE MONSOON rains

Tonk, Secretary of disaster manage-ment and relief department P C Kishan said very heavy rainfall occurred in areas of Sirohi, Ajmer, Pali and Karauli districts but there

asso no floot-like situation.
Heavy rainfall was recorded in 10 districts, including Jajour, the highest 231 im m rain during
and Silara faced water logging.

Rainwater also entered wards of the state's layest government sector hospital in Jaipur — Sawai Man Singh Hospital — and Ajmer's JLN Hospital. Railway tracks were inundated at Ajmer railway station. North Western Railway cancelled 18 trains and partially cancelled seven trains due to water logging. The affected trains connect describations like Sriganganagar, Bilkaner, Jaisalmer, Ajmer and Barmer with Rishlæsh, Jammu Tawi. Chandidan. Hamitsar. Tawi, Chandigarh, Amritsar Bathinda and Bhiwani.

Bathinda and Bhiwani. The Met department has issued a yellow alert in Baran, Bundi, Dungarpur, Jhalawar, Kora, Pratapparh and Sawai Madhopur on Luesday. The IMD uses four colour codes for weather warnings-green(no action needed, yellow (watch and stay updated), orange (be prepared) and red (take action).

Cong makes organisational rejig in its Rajasthan unit ahead of polls

PRESSTRUSTOFINDIA

NEW DELHI JULY 10

THE CONGRESS on Monday effected a major regig in its Rajasthan unit ahead of the Assembly polls, appointing 21 vice presidents, a treasure, 48 general secretaries, one general secretary organisation, 121 secretaries and 25 district presidents. Jetendra Singh, Naseem Akhtar Insaf, Kailash Mena, Rajlkumar Jaypal and Darshan Singh are among the 21 newly-appointed vice presidents.

Lalir Tunwalhas been appointed as general secretary organisation of the Rajasthan Padesh Congress Committee while Sitaram Agarwal was named the treasure.

The appointments have been made by Congress president Mallifacing that Ragar according to a statement by the party.

cording to a statement by the party.
The organisational shake-up came days after Kharge, Rahul Gandhi, AICC in-charge for Rajasthan Sukhjinder Randhawa, party's Rajasthan unit chief Covind Datasa, former depaty chief minister Sachin Pilotalong with several MLAs and ministers attended a polis strategy meeting in New Delhi. Gehot, who is recovering from injuries to his toes, attended the meeting via video conferencing. Following the meeting, the Congress had asserted that it can win the Assembly polis provided there is unity and warned of strict action against those not maintaining discipline and speaking outside the party forum.

action against those not maintaining disci-pline and speaking outside the party forum. The party also indicated that it may not declare a chief ministerial face for the polls due later this year. In an interview with PTI, Pilot on Saturday made it clear that he has buried the barche with Chief Minister AshOK Geluton the advice of party president Malikarjius Charge, saying collective leadership was the "only way" forward going into the Assembly rolls.

NALSA row: SC closes contempt case against Bharatpur bar leaders

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

THE SUPREME Court Monday closed the HH: SUPPLEME. Court Monday closed The contempt proceedings against some bar leaders of Bharatpur district lawyers association in Rajasthan after they gave an undertaking that advocates will not be restrained from defending accused under a legal aid scheme of NALSA.

A bench comprising Chief Justice D Y. Clandriachod and Justice P S Narasimha took note of the assurance by the newly-elected bar leaders that no lawyer will be stripped of their membership of the body for appearing for the accused under the appointed by the District Legal Services Authority under the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) scheme for providing legal representation to poor people facing criminal prosecution. The district bar association had taken action against some lawyers who had got themselves empanelled as volunteers under the Legal Aid Defence System of NALSA on NASY, the top our untatable can astrong note of the resolution of the district has association servicing because the service has resolution of the district has association servicing because astrong face to restraining lawyers from defending the accused, saying it was "sheer criminal contempt" and warning it will send those responsible to jail.

At tribal school called 'rotten'. attendance and language are barriers attendance and lange department, including in the posts of education officers, district education officers, district education officers, district education officers, and taluka primary education officers, has also been cited as one of the reasons for he lack of monitoring of these schools. During the recent special enrollment drive, four boys were enrolled in Class 1, taking the total number of students in the school to 122 – 104 boys and 118 girls. The school employs eight teachers. Despite advances, teachers say they face practical difficulties. More than four weeks since the new academic session began on June 5, heavy rain has delayed the day's class. Getting to school is ought in these parts. In 2013 to school is only in these parts. In 2013 to school to the school is only in these parts. In 2013 to school on an average, attendance in the school is around 40-50 per cent. On rare occasions, the attendance may go as high as 80 per cent, teachers said, Another barrier for both teachers and students is language.

While Gujarati is the medium ofinismation in government schools
such as the one in Jamli,
many of the students
speak tribal dialects
linked to the Rathvi lantuage.

"It took us some time to get used to their lan-guage. Now, every year, when the new batch comes, we have to first make them learn basic Gujarati words," a teacher said, explaining
