Resolution demanding humanitarian pause gets backing of 12 of 15 UNSC members; US says it makes no mention of Israel's right of self defence

Protesters put pressure on Arab governments to act to stop Israeli attacks on Palestinians; war now in a dangerous phase, warns Jordan's King Abdullah II

U.S. VETOES UNSCRESOLUTION CALLING ISRAEL TO PAUSE ATTACKS

BLAST AT GAZA HOSPITAL

THIS IS WHAT IS KNOWN ABOUT TUESDAY'S DEADLY BLAST AT A HOSPITAL IN GAZA CITY

In the dark of early evening in Gaza, reports emerged of an explosion at Gaza City's al-Ahli hospital. Al-Ahli was crowded both with victims of 10 days of Israeli airstrikes and with families and others who have taken refuge on hospital grounds

Video that The Associated Press confirmed as being from the hospital showed an orange ball of fire and flames engulfing the building and grounds

The video showed the outside of the hospital, where countless Palestinian families had been camping out.

Gaza's Hamas-run Health Ministry blamed an Israeli airstrike, and said it killed at least 500 people

Israeli authorities soon after denied involvement, saying a misfired Palestinian rocket appeared to blame

Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas and Jordan's King Abdullah II announced they were pulling out of a planned Arab summit Wednesday with President Joe Biden

NEW YORK

THE United States vetoed a UN Security Council resolution on Wednesday calling for a "humanitarian pause" in the raging Israel-Hamas conflict as the text did not respect Israel's right to defend itself, the US ambassador said.

Twelve out of 15 Council members voted in favor of the resolution put forward by Brazil and negotiated over several days, while Russia and the United Kingdom abstained.

The United States was the only vote against it, but as one of the body's five permanent members, its vote counts as a veto. "The United States is disappointed this resolution made no mention of Israel's rights of self-defence," US Ambassador to the UN Linda Thomas-Greenfield said after the vote.

For a resolution to be adopted in the Council, it must receive at least 9 votes in favour and not a single veto from any of the five permanent members.

The resolution said the Security Council "firmly condemns all violence and hostilities against civilians and all acts of terrorism."

It said the body "unequivocally rejects and condemns the heinous terrorist attacks by Hamas... and the taking of hostages.'

The text also "urges all parties to fully comply with their obligations under international law." The vote comes after the Security Council on Monday rejected a Russian resolution condemning spiraling violence in West Asia.

That resolution did not single out Hamas for its surprise attack on Israel on October 7, and it was rejected by permanent members -- the United States, the United Kingdom and France, as well as Japan.

take 199 people hostage.

Israel has retaliated with air strikes that have now claimed the lives of 3,478 people, according to health officials.

Meanwhile, Israel said on Wednesday that it will allow Egypt to deliver limited quantities of humanitarian aid to the Gaza Strip. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's office said the decision was approved in light of a request from US President Joe Biden. In a statement, it said it "will not thwart" deliveries of food, water and medicine. as long as the supplies do not reach Hamas. Egypt's Rafah crossing has only a limited capacity, and Egypt says it has been damaged by Israeli airstrikes.

Synagogue in Germany attacked with firebombs
