Prathipati's son created 12 shell firms, swindled crores: DGGI

VIJAYAWADA

Prathipati Sharath, son of former TDP Minister Prathipati Pulla Rao, who was arrested for claiming false Input Tax Credit (ITC) and tax evasion, created about 12 shell companies which were closed later, said officials of the Directorate General of GST Intelligence (DGGI). During their investigation, they found that the accused had allegedly created fake invoices for about ₹49.46 crore, through 12 shell companies and claimed ₹8 crore in ITC.

The DGGI, which noticed the scam, had imposed ₹16 crore fine and served demand notices. The shell companies were closed in 2021, the police said in a release. Sharath was arrested by the NTR Commissionerate Police on February 29, and was sent to judicial remand.

Sharath, additional director of Avexa Corporation Private Limited, and his associates had allegedly floated fake companies with fictitious names and addresses of other States, said the NTR Police Commissionerate, who are investigating the case.

Investigators alleged that Avexa Corporation directors took work orders from M/s. BSR Infretech India Private Limited, which took contracts from APCRDA for laying a road between Uddandarayunipalem to Nidamaru. Avexa's management allegedly created fake invoices for ₹26 crore without executing the works, said Police Commissioner Kanthi Rana Tata, who is monitoring the investigation into the scam. Avexa Corporation Private Limited claimed that they had procured material worth ₹17.70 crore from shell companies and claimed input tax of about ₹2.70 cr. from government.

Waltair Division sees 48% growth in non-fare earnings

The Hindu Bureau
VISAKHAPATNAM

Waltair Division achieved a 48% increase in non-fare commercial earnings this year as compared to last year, amounting up to ₹7.61 crore for the period April 2023 to February 2024. According to officials, this growth has been achieved due to the strategic focus on marketing at stations and trains.

Divisional Railway Manager (DRM) Saurabh Prasad said that their new plans include expanding coach restaurants to more stations, introducing food courts and commercial zones at 15 Amrit stations, and providing modern amenities like baggage scanning and leasing of station space.

Apart from launching the coach restaurant at Visakhapatnam in September last year, Waltair Division also set up the first coach restaurant at Rayagada station of Odisha in October 2023. More such initiatives are in the pipeline to further enhance the non-fare revenue of the division, the DRM added.
