'K'taka is managing power situation despite drought'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi
KARNATAKA Energy Minister KJ George said that the state government has been managing the power situation well, despite the drought in the state. Speaking to reporters here on Friday, KJ George said that the state government is prepared to face the situation and added that apart from the conventional method of power generation through hydel reservoirs, the state is also focusing on solar power generation.

"In 2014-15, 2,000 MW capacity solar park project was approved to be set up in Pavagada. During our recent visit to Pavagada, farmers came forward to give 10,000 acre of land out on lease. Farmers in Madhugiri also have come forward to give their land for the solar park. We will be starting the project soon. Tender has been floated for 750 MW solar power plant near substations. This would minimize the power lost in transmission. In all, 3,000 MW solar power plant will be set up near sub stations in the state in the future," he said.

"We will also support the existing private thermal power plant like Adani Power Ltd in Udupi to expand their power generation capacity," he added. KJ George who is the KPCC in charge for Udupi-Chikkamagalur Lok Sabha constituency, attacked BJP and blamed the party of spreading lies to win the general election. "Voters have decided that the I.N.D.I.A. bloc should win the elections," he said.

The BJP promised that they would bring back black money stashed in foreign banks, and provide two crore jobs each year to the youth. They did not fulfil majority of the promises. Though India has a large youth population, the GDP has not increased satisfactorily," he said.

LS POLLS: TAMIL NADU RECORDS 69 PER CENT VOTER TURNOUT

Contest was largely three-way among DMK, AIADMK and BJP

MURUGANANDHAM @ Chennai

AMID heatwave-like conditions searing large parts of the state, Tamil Nadu peacefully completed voting in its 39 Lok Sabha constituencies, barring minor skirmishes and EVM glitches in some places, with a provisional voter turnout of 69% as of 7pm on Friday. The figure might be revised as voters in queues at polling booths as of 6pm were still casting their ballot.
Briefing reporters at the secretariat, Chief Electoral Officer Satyabrata Sahoo said that Flying Squad Teams and Static Surveillance Teams will be dismantled in the state, an announcement that would give much relief to traders, farmers and jewellers. However, the teams will continue to be stationed in the border areas of the neighbouring States of Kerala, Karnataka, and Andhra Pradesh where elections are not yet over.
The provisional voting figure this year was slightly lower than 2019's turnout of 72.47%. A comparison of provisional polling data in all 39 constituencies in the current elections against the turnout in the 2019 Lok Sabha elections suggests as many as 25 constituencies may have polled fewer votes this year while

102-YEAR-OLD WOMAN COMES ALONE TO CAST HER VOTE

Dindigul: A 102-year-old woman named Chinnamal cast her vote in the Ramalingapatti polling booth in Rettiyarchaitram in Dindigul Lok Sabha constituency. She came to the polling booth on her own with the support of a stick. As per ECI instructions returning officer MN Poongodi informed the public to avail free vehicle facility for senior citizens and differently abled persons. However, it did not reach the public. Hence, they came to the booths with their family.

100 TRIBALS WALKED FOR 10KM TO EXERCISE THEIR FRANCHISE

Tiruppur: As complaints galore about affluent and educated people in cities fail to cast their votes, about 100 tribal men and women walked for nearly 10km through hostile terrain to exercise their franchise at a polling booth on Friday. In a poignant exemplar of the political awareness at the grassroots, the tribals skipped their breakfast and walked for more than four hours amid sweltering heat to fulfill their democratic responsibility.

14 constituencies may have polled more votes.
Of the 39 constituencies, 33 constituencies have polled more than 70% of votes with Kallakurichi topping the list (75.67%) followed by Dharmapuri (75.44%) and Chidambaram (74.87%). Chennai Central saw the lowest turnout of 67.35%. The three constituencies in Chennai district, will still see the lowest turnout in the state, have polled more votes compared to 2019.

Sahoo said polling was peaceful except a few stray incidents. A very low percentage of EVMs had to be replaced due to technical issues, he added. He said postal ballots are yet to be added to the overall votes polled. He pointed out that the provisional voter turnout in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls in TN stood at only 69% suggesting a rise in votes polled this year. Stating that voter turnout increased between 3pm to 6pm due to the high temperatures seen in many parts of TN, he said the final polling percentage would be announced on Saturday.
Asked if repolling would be conducted anywhere, the CEO said it would depend on the reports to be filed by the presiding officers, observers and political parties.

Law minister visits house of victims

"WHEN the assailants heard me calling the police, they rushed towards our room. But I had locked it from inside. They did not break open the door and attack us," Prakash Bakale said.
Gadag Superintendent of Police BS Nemagouda, who visited the house, said, "We are investigating the case. Four people were murdered between 2 am and 3 am."
Law Minister HK Patil visited the house and consoled the Bakale family members. Belagavi North IGP Vikash Kumar and Ad-ditional SP MB Sankad also visited the house.

'Situation is fluid in B'lore South'

A major chunk of the Telugu-speaking populace, including the Reddys and Naidus, would favour Sowmya, but the Kannada-speaking Vokkaligas in Bengaluru South are uneasy, observes a resident, Swami Gowda. "A major section of Vokkaligas who migrated from Mandya district to Bengaluru South are with the JDS. They are likely to support Surya, a Brahmin, who is the BJP-JD(S) alliance candidate," he opines.
But Suryanarayana, a shopkeeper at Mavalli area, has a different take. "Many voters who claimed to be with the BJP in the past may change their position as the situation is fluid this time around," he says. This constituency was a BJP citadel for over three decades. It was represented by former Union minister Ananth Kumar in the LS for five terms before his untimely demise in 2018. Ananth Kumar had defeated Infosys co-founder Nandan Nilekani in 2014.

In 2019, Surya defeated former Rajya Sabha member B K Hariprasad of the Congress by a huge margin of 3.31 lakh votes. The situation, however, has changed. Recently, a Hindu shopkeeper playing Hanuman Chalisa was attacked by some goons. Surya and the BJP tried to draw political mileage out of it but failed. Clearly, he is facing some anti-incumbency.
Recently, at the meeting of a failed Sri Guru Raghavendra Cooperative bank, Surya and his uncle (Basavanagudi MLA L A Ravi Subramanya) were heckled as they were accused of failing to safeguard the interests of depositors. But they turned the tables on the Congress, blaming it for the run on the bank. Surya is banking mainly on Prime Minister Narendra Modi's charisma as the opposition INDIA bloc does not have a prime ministerial face. On the other hand, Sowmya chants the five Congress guarantees and depends on her father's political acumen.

The working class, especially a major chunk of women, are inclined towards the Congress because of the five guarantees. Most of them reside in about 60 slums across the constituency. But the conventional BJP voters and those with JD(S), mostly the Vokkaligas, support Surya. No wonder then, he visited Vokkaliga religious head Sri Balagadharanatha Swamiji and Lingayat's Sri Siddalinga Swamiji at Siddaganga Mutt.
"This election is mainly about securing a third term for PM Modi ji - it's not a local or a state election," Surya emphasises.
