User fee at Kerala's capital city airport up by 50% from July 1

AERA says the fee for embarking domestic passengers will be ₹770 and ₹330 for disembarking; international passengers will have to pay twice the tariff levied on domestic travellers each year

NEW DELHI

Flying out of the Adani-controlled Thiruvananthapuram airport will get costlier from July 1 as the user development fee (UDF) levied on passengers as part of air tickets will go up by 50% from ₹506 to ₹770 for domestic travellers for a year and further raised every year. Landing charges for aircraft have been jacked up three-fold by the Airport Economic Regulatory Authority (AERA) only for Thiruvananthapuram airport.

The landing charges for aircraft have been raised three-fold for the first year from ₹309 to ₹890 per MT of aircraft weight. PTI

The revised levies are part of the tariff order issued by the AERA on June 21 for a period of five years from April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2027, and will be effective from July 1. This is the first revision for the airport since its privatisation. The Thiruvananthapuram

Kerala International Airport Ltd (TKIAL) is owned by Adani Airport Holdings Limited (AAHL), incorporated in 2019 as a 100% subsidiary of Adani Enterprises Limited, that controls eight airports.

International passenger In its order, the AERA said the applicable UDF for embarking domestic passengers from July 1 to March 31, 2025, will be ₹770 and ₹330 for disembarking passengers. From April 1, 2025, to March 31, 2026, domestic travellers on flights departing from the airport will have to pay ₹840, while those landing at the airport will have to pay ₹360. In the subsequent financial year, the fee for domestic travellers will be raised to ₹910 and ₹390, respectively. International passengers will have to pay twice the tariff levied on domestic travellers each year.

The landing charges for aircraft have been raised three-fold for the first year from ₹309 to ₹890 per metric tonne (MT) of aircraft weight. This will increase by 4.6 times and 5.5 times for the subsequent financial years with a levy of ₹1,400 per MT and ₹1,650 per MT. The regulator has rejected the airport's projection for non-aeronautical revenue that is used to cross-subsidise passenger costs and raised it four-fold to ₹392 crore as opposed to ₹102 crore proposed by the airport.

In its defence, the airport operator has told the regulator that it has framed a procurement policy to avoid subjectivity and improve transparency in decision making and followed the process relating to procurement of goods and services as required in the concession agreement signed with the AAI.

Jagan urges A.P. Assembly Speaker to recognise him as LoP

The Hindu Bureau
VIJAYAWADA

YSR Congress Party (YSRCP) president Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy on Tuesday wrote a letter to Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly Speaker Ch. Ayanna Patrudu, urging the latter to recognise him as the Leader of Opposition (LoP) in the House.

Going by the precedents in the Lok Sabha, Delhi Assembly and the Assembly of undivided Andhra Pradesh, the LoP status should be given to the YSRCP leader.

The LoP post was given to a leader of the Opposition party though its numerical strength was less when compared to the total strength of the House, the YSRCP chief said. Mr. Reddy said that there were discussions in the public domain that the YSRCP would not be entitled to have the LoP post because it did not have 10% members of the total strength of the House.

"The Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly notified

Jagan Mohan Reddy

under Article 208 of the Constitution do not prescribe any such mandatory percentage of seats for a leader of a party to be recognised as the LoP. Nor has there been any convention on the insistence of the 10% strength on the floor of the House for the Opposition parties," said Mr. Reddy.

Meanwhile, Minister for Tribal Welfare Gummidi Sandhya Rani said Mr. Reddy does not have a sufficient number of MLAs to recognise him as the LoP and "he will be considered as an MLA as per the rules".

Referring to the letter sent by Mr. Reddy, the Minister said, "Mr. Reddy got only 11 MLAs, which falls short of the required 10% of the total 175 members in the House to consider him as the LoP."
