Oppn's request to discuss the issue related to NEET was denied in both Houses.

LOP Rahul Gandhi in Lok Sabha.

NEW DELHI: Leader of the Opposition Rahul Gandhi has written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, requesting him to facilitate a debate on the NEET issue in the Lok Sabha on Wednesday. He said the Opposition's request to discuss the issue related to the medical entrance exam NEET was denied in both Houses of Parliament on June 28 as well as on Monday, and added that the Lok Sabha speaker had assured the Opposition that he would discuss the matter with the government. The Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha said the aim was to engage "constructively to find a way forward". "I am writing to request for a debate in Parliament on NEET," Gandhi said in his letter to the prime minister on Tuesday. "Our aim is to engage constructively to find a way forward. At this moment, our only concern is the welfare of nearly 24 lakh NEET aspirants across India," he said. Referring to the government's move to postpone other examinations and replace the Director General of the National Testing Agency, he said these moves are to "cover up the systemic breakdown of our centralised testing system". "The NEET examination deserves immediate attention because it has exposed the deep rot in our higher education system. The past seven years have seen over 70 paper leaks, affecting over two crore students," the Congress leader said. He said lakhs of families have made tremendous personal sacrifices to support their children, and for many, the paper leak is a betrayal of a lifetime dream.

Victims look up to public rep to resolve the issue

Rahul Gandhi Gandhi said those families are looking up to their public representatives to take "bold and decisive steps" to resolve the issue. "Our students deserve answers. A parliamentary debate is the first step towards rebuilding and restoring their faith," he said. "Given the urgency of the matter, I request the government to facilitate a debate in the House tomorrow. I believe that it would be fitting if you were to lead this debate in the interest of the students," Gandhi added. Opposition INDIA bloc parties sought debate on the NEET issue in both Houses.

Replying to a two-day debate on the President's address to both houses of Parliament, PM also accused the Congress of working towards creating economic anarchy in the country.

FASTFACTS

- PM said, Cong has not crossed 100 seats for three consecutive times.
- PM said, a new drama was played in the Lok Sabha to garner sympathy.

creating economic anarchy in the country. Modi singled out Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi, saying the House witnessed the wailing of a person with "balak budhhi (childish behaviour)" who tried to gain sympathy without disclosing the wrongs he had committed. "This is the first time that the Congress has not crossed 100 seats for three consecutive times. Instead of conceding defeat, they are being arrogant. They are trying to build a narrative that they have beaten us," Modi said in the Lok Sabha amid vociferous protests by the opposition. The prime minister said a new drama was played in the Lok Sabha to garner sympathy. "They know the truth that they are out on bail for embezzlement of thousands of crores of rupees, have been convicted for calling OBC people thieves and they had to apologise for irresponsible comments on the country's top court," the prime minister said in an apparent reference to Gandhi. Modi said an attempt was made to mislead Parliament on the Agnipath scheme and minimum support price for farm produce.
