Centre issued warnings to Kerala, says Amit Shah

Union Home Minister, Amit Shah stated that the Central Government gave sufficient warnings to the Kerala government regarding the natural calamity beforehand.

Press Trust Of India

NEW DELHI: Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Wednesday said the Centre had sent multiple advance warnings, starting as early as July 23, to the Kerala government about possible floods and landslides and nine NDRF teams were rushed to the state the same day.

tragedy. He also promised all help from the central government.

The home minister was intervening in response to statements from the Opposition who blamed the loss of lives to the lack of early warning systems for natural calamities such as the one in Wayanad, amid calls from several members cutting across party lines to declare the tragedy in Kerala a national disaster. Taking a dig at the Opposition, the home minister said, "...that is why I say, do not shout please listen to us, please read it. Read the warning that has been sent."

There are many state governments who have achieved zero casualty by heeding to these early warnings for natural calamities, Shah said citing examples of Odisha and Gujarat. Asserting that there is an early warning system, he said the government has spent Rs 2,000 crore on it after 2014, and this information is shared with states seven days prior and that information is also available on the website for all, including MPs.

HIGHLIGHT

● Even after getting multiple warnings from the centre, the Kerala government did not pay any heed to them and eventually became the victim of a landslide in Wayanad.

In an apparent dig at Congress leader Rahul Gandhi, he said, "But some people do not open Indian sites, only foreign sites, now on overseas (websites) this early warning system will not show, you will have to open our sites". If the state government was alert to the arrival of the NDRF teams, a lot could have been saved, the home minister claimed.

"The central government sent nine NDRF teams by air. May I ask what the Kerala government did? Whether or not unauthorised people were living there, this was a vulnerable situation at hand, were the people evacuated? Why were they not evacuated? Who stopped them and if they were evacuated how did the (people) die?" Shah asked. He claimed that the people were evacuated later not earlier but expressed solidarity with the state and reassured the Rajya Sabha that irrespective of party politics, the Modi government will stand by the people and the government of Kerala like a rock.

Courage

Courage is a quality that should develop in every human being. If you have courage, you can deal with all the difficulties in life with confidence. courage doesn't mean not being scared of scary things. courage means taking risks, following your dreams without fear, being confident. courage is something you can learn at any aspect of life- childhood, adulthood or old age. Even anywhere- at home, at school, office etc. And from anyone- family, friends, teachers etc. It is something you should and must learn.
