

ADGP P Vijayan, suspended over security lapse, is Kerala's new intelligence chief

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, OCT 8

ADGP P VIJAYAN, a 1999-batch IPS officer, was Tuesday appointed as the state intelligence head after the incumbent Manoj Abraham was made ADGP law and order.

Changes in the top posts in the state police were made after MR Ajith Kumar, who is facing a slew of probes - including lapses in the conduct of the iconic Thrissur Pooram - was removed as ADGP law and order last week.

Vijayan was suspended in May 2023 on charges of security lapse related to the transit of the Kozhikode train arson case accused person Shahrulk Saifi after he was arrested from Maharashtra. Vijayan, who was then an IG rank officer heading the state anti-terrorism squad, was suspended in May last year over the alleged leak of police's plan to bring Saifi back to the state.

Vijayan was reinstated in November 2023 after a detailed probe found the allegations baseless. He was promoted as ADGP in May this year and was made director of the Kerala police academy. Significantly, the suspension was on the basis of a report submitted by ADGP Kumar. The order had then stated that although he was not part of the investigation team, Vijayan was in touch with the police team, which brought Saifi to Kerala. Vijayan has been credited with designing and launching the Student Police Cadets (SPC) project, and had been the nodal officer of the initiative - a first-of-its-kind in India - for several years. The SPC scheme, meant to groom the youth, make them sensitive to societal laws and help them maintain civic discipline, was also mentioned by police in other states.
