SALUTE THE SOLDIER
CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE
15 October 1987
Constable T Mohanan was deployed with the 35 Battalion of CRPF, which formed part of the Indian Peace Keeping Force (IPKF) in Sri Lanka. On 15 October 1987, two companies of CRPF were ordered to move from Palali Airfield to Karawadi East (Tropo area) in a convoy of three vehicles. En route, the convoy was ambushed by militants armed with rocket launchers, mortars, and automatic weapons. Despite sustaining severe injuries, including bullet wounds to the chest and a badly lacerated shoulder, Constable T Mohanan displayed extraordinary courage. He manned the LMG, returning heavy fire until he collapsed, succumbing to his injuries. His selfless act saved the lives of his comrades. For his conspicuous bravery and supreme sacrifice, Constable T Mohanan was posthumously awarded the prestigious Vir Chakra.
15 October 1990
72 Battalion of CRPF was deployed in Tarn Taran district, Punjab, to assist the state police in anti-terrorist operations. On 15 October 1990, a patrol party was tasked with area domination in a village when militants launched an ambush. A fierce encounter followed, during which Constable Ramesh Chand Sharma sustained bullet injuries and made the supreme sacrifice in the line of duty.
15 October 2004
On 15 October 2004, troops of 80 Battalion of CRPF were deployed for election duty at PS Pasraha, Khagaria district. While returning to base between Mahesh Khute and Pasraha on NH-31, suspected Maoists ambushed the convoy, opening fire and hurling a grenade. The troops retaliated, but the attackers escaped under the cover of darkness. HC S.M. Ahmed and Constable Netra Pal sustained severe injuries in the attack. Despite being evacuated, they succumbed to their wounds, attaining martyrdom. Their sacrifice remains unforgettable.
