

India, US working on Rana's early extradition: MEA

SHUBHANGI JOY NEW DELHI, JANUARY 31 DAYS AFTER the US Supreme Court rejected a review petition filed by Raghav Rana, wanted in India for his role in the 26/11 Mumbai terror attacks, the Indian government said Friday that it is working with the Americans on "procedural issues" for his "early extradition". This is New Delhi's first confirmation that works underway hear a petition from the accused (Rana). We are now working with the US side on procedural issues for early extradition to India of the accused in the Mumbai terror attack, Raghav Rana, official spokesperson of the Ministry of External Affairs, said. On November 13 last year, Rana had filed a petition for a writ of certiorari — essentially a process to seek review of a lower court order — before the US Supreme Court, arguing that he was tried and acquitted in a federal court in the Northern District of Illinois on charges related to the Mumbai attacks and cannot be sent to India for a second trial on the same charges. With the rejection of his plea praying the way for his extradition to India, sources had told the Indian Express that a team of four officers of the National Investigation Agency (NIA) will be going to the US to complete the formalities for his extradition. The Delhi Prisons Department had also started making arrangements in a high-security ward of Tihar jail for Rana's stay, it is learned.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE PUNE, JANUARY 31 A PUNE-based businesswoman has been duped of Rs 28.88 lakh by a friend she made on Facebook on the pretext of performing backlogs to solve her daughter's problems. The victim, who is a 62-year-old woman living in Balewadi, lodged a complaint at the Baner police station on Wednesday. Police said the woman came in contact with the accused man through a Facebook page in December 2024. Police said the complainant and the accused never came face to face, but used to interact online and used to speak over the phone.

Mehbooba urges Chandrababu, Nitish to help stop Waqf Bill amendments

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE SRINAGAR, JANUARY 31 PDP PRESIDENT Mehbooba Mufti Friday said she has written to the leadership of NDA allies (BJD) and TDP urging them to help stop the proposed Waqf (Amendment) Bill that is likely to be tabled in the Budget Session of Parliament. This comes a day after NCS Srinagar MP Aga Rahullah Mehdi said he will meet and make a "final appeal" to (BJD) and TDP MPs regarding the concerns of the Muslim community over the proposed amendments. In her letter to (BJD) chief Nitish Kumar and TDP president N Chandrababu Naidu, Mufti said the "essence" of Mahatma Gandhi's vision for India is being "altered, undermining the secular fabric that binds this nation together". She urged the two leaders to intervene and prevent the Bill from being passed in Parliament. "You have always been a staunch believer in our Constitution and have consistently championed the spirit of Ganda-Jamuni brotherhood. Today, as key members of the NDA, you are uniquely positioned to influence this matter and halt this onslaught," she wrote.
